Business Analysis Course Curriculum

1. Introduction to Business Analysis

This lesson prepares your mind as to what business analysis entails, the roles that business analyst play in an organization and the agile perspective. At the end of the topic you should have a clear understanding of the expectations of a business analyst

2. Key Concepts in Business Analysis

This lesson explains the core concept model in business analysis, the different classification of requirements, various stakeholders that the business analyst work with and the comparison between requirements and designs

3. Planning and Monitoring Business Analysis Activities

This lesson provides the guidelines to planning and choosing the best approach for a business analysis activity, stakeholder engagement, decision making, information management and how to measure the performance of the business analysis activity

4. Eliciting Requirements & Collaborating with Stakeholders

This lesson provides insight on how to prepare and conduct for elicitation, confirm and communicate the results of your elicitation, ensure wholesome collaboration with various stakeholder groups at every point of the project

5. Managing Requirements throughout the Lifecycle of a Project

This lesson explains the principles procedures of tracing, maintaining, prioritizing, assessing and approving requirements

6. Strategy Analysis

This lesson looks at how to carry out a current state analysis to identify defects and pain points, define the future state for a solution, assess the associated risk and define the strategy that needs to be followed to implement the change

7. Requirement Engineering

This lesson explains the core activities of an IT business analyst which looks at how to specify, model, verify and validate requirements, define the requirement architecture, design options and how value can be realized from the solution

8. Solution Evaluation

This lesson explains how to measure, analyze, performance of the solution, assess the limitations of the solution and that of the enterprise, and recommend actions to increase the value of a solution

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who should attend the training?
   - You are currently in a business analysis role and feel ill-equipped for the role
   - You are an aspiring Business Analyst from any industry who wants to transition into tech to become a Product Manager
   - Recent graduates that want to start their careers as Business Analyst

- You are planning to write a certification exam in business analysis

2. How is the program structured?
    - The training is for 12 weeks which includes 4 weeks of intensive learning and 8 weeks of project work, mentoring and a wrap with interview guide and job search tips.

3. I don't reside in Lagos, how can I be a part of the program?
    - The program is online based allowing you to take your training from anywhere and at any time within the duration of the program.

4. Is there any certificate offered at the end of program?
    - Yes, you will get a verified certificate of attendance after successful completion of the program

5. What do I need to start the program?
    - zYou will need a good internet connection to connect online inorder to take your training
    - You will need a device, preferably a laptop to do your projects and assignments
    - And most importantly you will need the passion to excel